The 1947 FINIAL of

COLUMBIA BIBLE COLLEGE

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

DEDICATION

MRS. WILLIAM L. WALKER

Not merely in the words you say,
Not merely in your deeds confessed,
But in the most unconscious way—
is Christ expressed.

For me 'twas not the truth you taught,
To you so clear, to me so dim,
But when you came to me you brought—a sense of Him.

And from your eyes He beckons me,
And from your heart His love is shed,
Till I lose sight of you and see—the Christ instead.

MRS. WILLIAM L. WALKER

Dean of Women

B.A., QUEENS-CHICORA COLLEGE

Who among us has not beheld the gracious manner and unassuming air of dignity so inborn as to be the very essence of her personality? Who has not known and felt her warm and sincere interest even in the minutest details in the careful preparation of young men and women for facing a new world? Few have seen her special delight in partaking of a toasted hamburger, or known that hidden musical talent. Varied have been her interests before arriving at Bible College. A Bible instructor, a city missionary, general secretary of Y. W. C. A., and last, but not least—a housewife and mother of four children: these have been experiences which help make for sympathetic understanding of each problem.

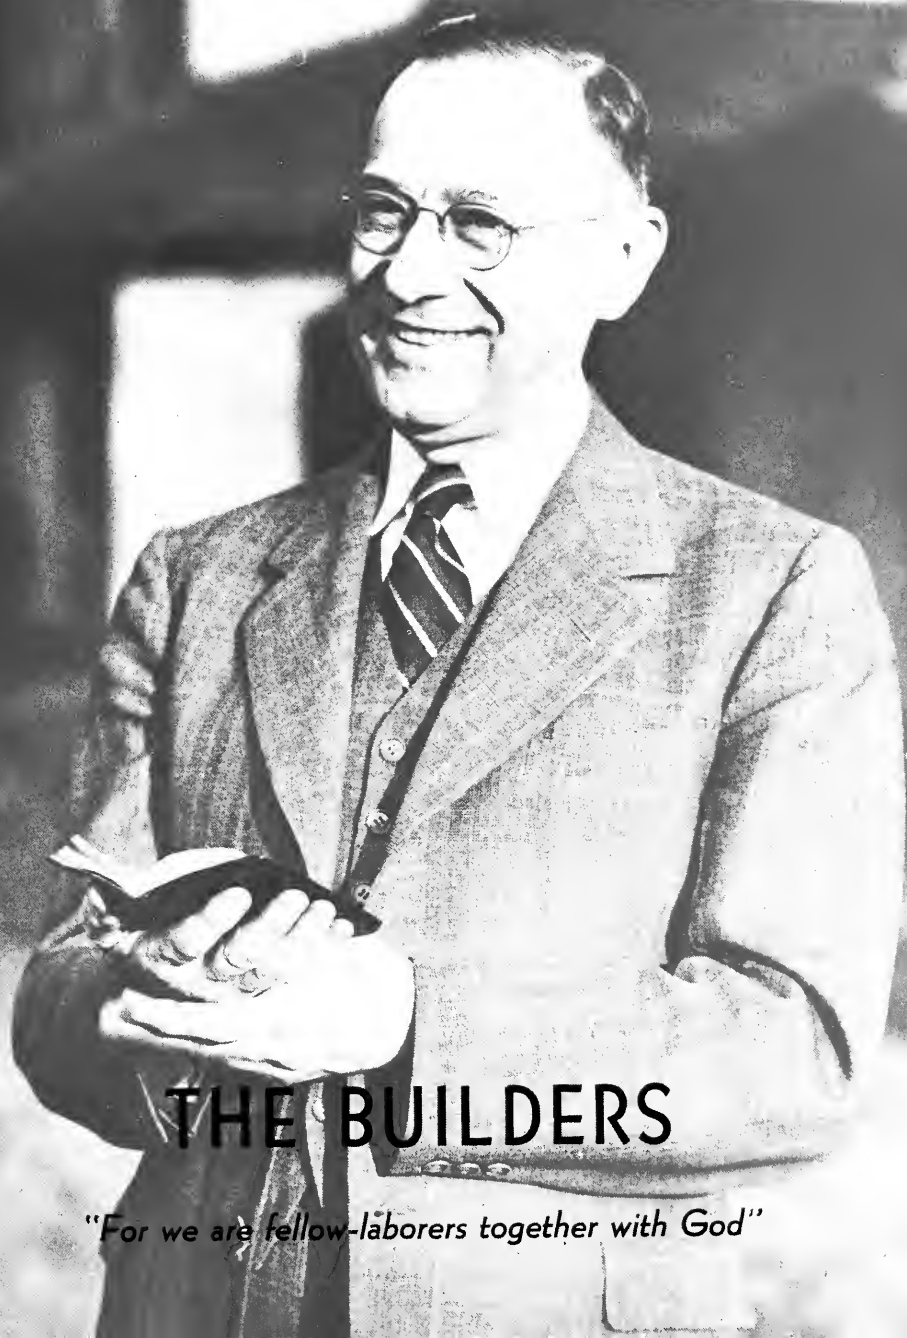

Because of these things, and because of the constant, constant, and convincing testimony of a consecrated life, the 1947 FINIAL is dedicated to you, our beloved Dean of Women, Mrs. William L. Walker.

NEW DORMITORY

Do not turn from this picture as uninteresting. There is a great story connected with it. The biggest adventure of faith in the way of material things that C. B. C. has entered into is the new dormitory and classroom building, which will cost more than $200,000.00. These solid concrete foundations are well able to carry the structural steel and the three-story and basement building. What we need is a sure foundation of prayer and faith. Thus far $16,000.00 has been provided. A very much needed assembly hall, classrooms, including a radio broadcasting room, and a book store will occupy the first floor, with women's dormitories on the second and third floors, accommodating 72 young women. An encouragement to pray in faith for the completion of this building by September, 1947, is the remarkable double answer to prayer for the new dining room extension and kitchen improvements: first, the finishing of the building in spite of many problems of material and labor, and second, the provision of the total cost of $23,600.00 on the designated day. In this and in all of our needs, we can all say, in the words of the China Inland Mission motto: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped," and "The Lord will provide."

THE STAFF

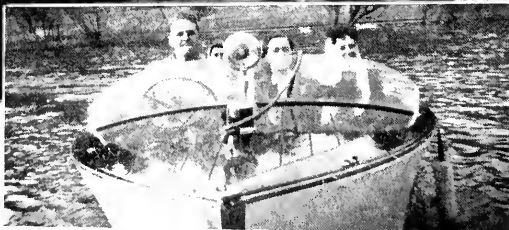

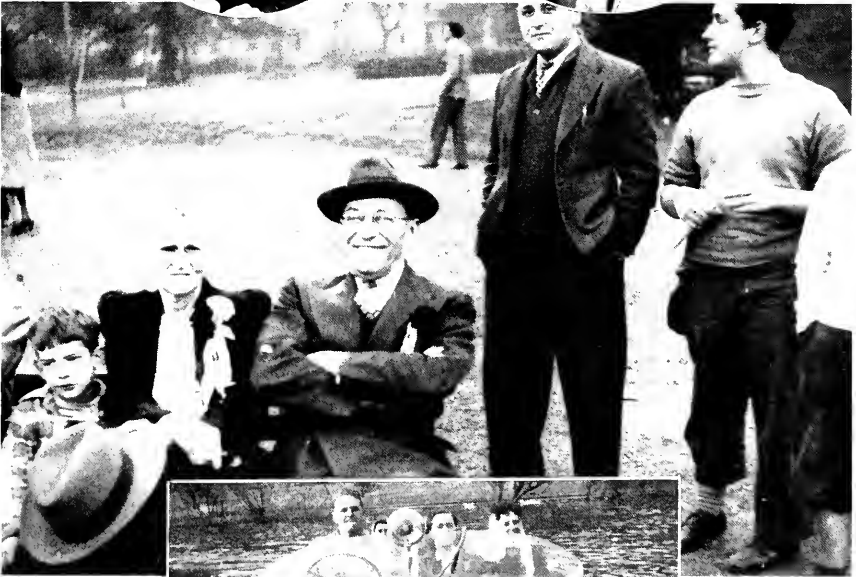

FIRST ROW: Long, Steel, Briggs, Wood, V., Bowman, Wood, S., Wendell, Dowdle.
SECOND ROW: Webendorfer, Tweten, Owings, McNaull, Moore, Webendorfer, Cowger, Rikard, Smith.

. . . And the Lord, He it is that doth go before thee . . . DEUTERONOMY 31:8.

In Bible lands the staff was the chief symbol of travel. When Jacob set out for Paddan-aram he took only his staff (Gen. 32:10). With a staff in their hands the Israelites kept the Passover in Egypt. (Ex. 12:11). The staff, therefore, was a symbol of help in the long and tiresome journeys of ancient times. In the hands of a shepherd the staff was used to guard and guide the sheep.

As the Oriental traveler was always glad to have his staff along, so we also at C. B. C. are truly thankful for the faithful and loyal staff that helps us in ways too numerous and varied to mention. Characterized by capability and efficiency, our staff serves Him "willingly in the day of His power in the beauties of holiness" (Ps. 110:3a). At tasks lowly and high they also serve in "Knowing Him and making Him known."

"The Senior Class of C. B. C., always happy as we can be—". For four years now this tune has rung out from the cheering section, class meetings, and social activities, marking on the campus the doings of our class. As its note fades into echo and we look ahead, the joys of building ourselves into better workmen will remain in our hearts. The memories of fellowship day by day, and of feasting on the riches of our studies; the failures that taught lessons, too; the faith strengthened by proving our Lord in services; and the fact of His building in our own personal lives will not be shaken by the storms, for our foundation is Christ, and we are workmen together with Him to make this foundation sure in the lives of others.

For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, God's building. According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; each man's work shall be made manifest for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself shall prove each man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire. . . .

As we are being fashioned into a building for His glory we look with joy at what God has already wrought in our lives. Our Freshman year was filled to overflowing with intellectual, social, and spiritual experiences which we can never forget. In our next year as the Victory Class, we were enthusiastic and victorious in all we undertook. Then came our most joyous year—filled to overflowing with abundant class meetings, socials and good times together—our Junior year has truly made us One in Christ! As we look forward with eager anticipation to our Senior year, we are confident that the foundations being laid in our four years here shall remain steadfast in our future service for Him.

Third Row—Beard, Duncan, Crane, Bates, Schrepfer, Davis, R., Gantt, Buhler, Blue, Beal.

Although four years seemed such a long time when we first entered C. B. C., we now find it almost impossible to realize that half our stay here has passed. During our first year, our one foundation in Christ was built upon by faithful teachers who taught us to use in our building gold, silver, and precious stones. As we began to spend more time with our Lord, in small groups and alone, we saw our building grow slowly yet solidly upon the Rock, Christ Jesus. When we returned this year, it was with the determination to make our stay count for the very most in His service. F. M. F. and other conferences, Prayer-days, Christian Service, school socials, class get-togethers under the able sponsorship of Dr. Carpenter—all these have helped our class press on toward the mark of our calling in Christ.

Even while the news of the victorious end of World War II was being heralded throughout the world, God was guiding in the plans and affairs of many of His young servants. Many of us wore the uniform of our country; some of us saw service overseas in lands and nations where His gospel is not known. God's faithful leading in each person's life joined us together in the Class of 1950 at Columbia Bible College.

From the very beginning, even amid the confusion and struggle of entrance procedures, we made sure to apply to our own lives the verse chosen as the 1946 year verse, "That in all things. He might have the preeminence."

We undertook our studies and daily college life with enthusiasm and vision. We soon learned from Mr. Sells how to "draw a railroad connection". We memorized Dr. Fleece's mannerisms. We enjoyed our socials and "Friday night dates." We saw God answer our prayers of faith by supplying the Bible College needs. But, best of all, though we came from different walks of life, we're here on business for our Saviour—King, "To Know Him and to Make Him Known."

The graduate school might well be called "A Cornerstone" of C. B. C. A quick survey of our number shows twelve states represented and a varied background including the armed forces, nursing, Inter-Varsity, and home missions. Ours has been the privilege of sharpening our tools in these experiences and now the Lord has brought us to build together the structure "To know Him, and to make Him known." As the Lords leads, we purpose to go to various fields of service for Him. Foreign missions are in the majority, although some of us may do educational or mission work in this country. Whether we go or stay, our desire is to go forth strengthening, establishing, and settling on the foundation we have here at C. B. C. for other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Christ Jesus.

The Student Association of the Columbia Bible College does not fall under the generalization that "all such collegiate organizations are a sham". Directly and through its representative, the Student Council, the Association seeks to coordinate all of the student extra-curricular activities, inspiring among the students the spirit of appreciation and helpfulness.

Among its functions, the organization originates and sponsors many activities directly designed to result in the betterment of its members. Under this category fall the school socials, assembly programs, the radio broadcast—"Truth for Youth", clean-up campaigns, the "Food for Europe" enterprise, and similar products.

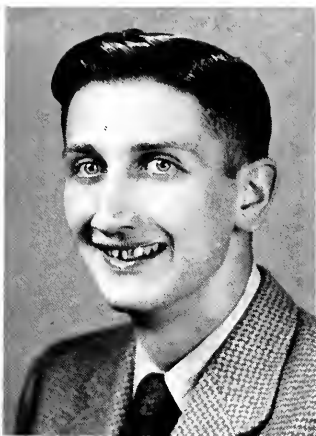

With Christ as the center, the Association seeks to foster among its members spiritual oneness, that we might in all things "Know Him and make Him known."

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest . . ." At FMF each Saturday night the mission fields of the world are presented to students as challenge for each one to decide what part he is to have in spreading the Gospel. Active members are purposing to go into foreign lands, and associate members are praying concerning God's will for them in missions.

"That he will send forth labourers . . ." Our goal is to present missions to those whom we can reach through deputation groups sent out from the school, as well as to have an actual share in the work of missionaries through gifts and intercessory prayer. Time is set aside each week for groups to meet for prayer concerning each field as the needs are made known.

"Into His harvest." Through conferences held jointly with Inter-Varsity Fellowship and from alumni from the field the vision of reaching the lost for Christ is kept before us. There are now 180 who have gone from C. B. C. to the "regions beyond" to make His love and power known.

A vital part of the missionary emphasis at C. B. C. is the new course designed to train prospective missionaries as pilots. Reports sent back from foreign mission fields in recent years show that in many places an airplane can be used to great advantage in saving time, expense, and health for the missionaries. The class shown here is the first class to begin flight training, though a ground school course was held in the spring of 1946. The ground school is taught by an ex-Navy pilot. We of the aviation class sincerely pray that our skill in flying may be used to speed the message of eternal life through Christ Jesus to the end of the earth.

The FINIAL

The 1947 FINIAL staff laid the foundation for the yearbook in prayer. The helpers labored faithfully under the guidance of the Master Workman using—efficiently the tools which He had given them to properly lay each stone with Jesus Christ as the Chief Corner Stone. With appreciation to those who worked so faithfully, and praise to Him for his sufficient grace, we, the Junior class, give to you your FINIAL. It is with prayer that as we go forth for the Lord, this book will bring many pleasant memories and many precious thoughts of Him.

We would like to thank all those who took part in building this book, and we extend special thanks to The R. L. Bryan Company for valuable aid and willing assistance of the Charlotte Engraving Co.

It takes all kinds of materials to erect a building, and so it is with a paper. The CeBeCean, official student publication, seeks to make a definite contribution to campus life through a combination of the light and the serious sides, the interesting and the newsy, about students, their school, and related activities.

Chief objective is to take the time, try the patience, and tax the ingenuity of the busy staff. At unannounced intervals it makes its appearance on the scene bringing with it an element of surprise as well as varied features, news (well, it was once, anyway), and—most important—a stimulus to conversation.

Starting off its fifteenth year of publication, the CeBeCean made history with its completely masculine staff, whose aim was to present a viewpoint without masculine bias. Writing, typing, making and keeping deadlines, culling, proofreading, “stuffing the dummy”, sweating it out—all went into the job.

Typists: FISHER, BUHLER, and DILLINGER

Writers: ECKSTROM, McQUILKIN, PARSONS, MARTIN, and LEGANT

Somehow, though, the issues managed to get out, and after being read eagerly disappeared into notebooks, coat pockets, desk drawers, etc., to be taken out at some later time and rehashed. With each completed issue, the staff sighed with relief and dug in deeper for the next. Their reward: a realization that fellow students appreciated the finished product and anxiously awaited the following issues.

"To know what is fine of the oldest,
 To learn what is best of the new."

These words from our song best express the aim of the Philobiblonian Literary Society. In the two meetings we have each month we strive to learn something both from the old literature and from the new. Each member has a part on the program at least once a semester and in this way each receives valuable practice helpful in becoming an effective speaker. It is our purpose to cultivate a well-rounded life through a knowledge of poetry, readings, news, debates, parliamentary law and music. In all these we seek to glorify Him and make Him the center of our lives.

OFFICERS

President	ED DRESCHSEL
Vice-President ...	GORDON BEACHAM
Rec. Sec.	BOB FROELICK
Corr. Sec.	GEORGE McMILLAN
Treasurer	JOHN MAC NEIL
Sergts.-at-Arms ...	TIFTON BENNETT,
	BRYAN CHENAULT
Parliamentarian	R. MCQUILKIN

The aim with which the Philologian Literary Society was founded was to give the men of Columbia Bible College an opportunity to better fit themselves for the Lord's service through a wider knowledge of the gems of literature and the art of public speaking. This goal is being accomplished by active participation in the bi-monthly meetings of the Men's Literary Society.

Impromptu speeches train the Philologians in giving vital public addresses. Knowledge gained through Parliamentary drill in the meetings may be put into practice in church business meetings. The planned devotional messages afford the spiritual uplift which is so vital in the daily Christian life. Cultural abilities are shared with fellow-Philologians in the interesting meetings, and afford a real source of pleasure and profit.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

PETTY, STRAUSS

The Christian Service Departments with its many and varied activities is building on eternal values. The women's department has centered its thought around the eternal value of the minute in both the thought of time, and in the sense of smallness, or service that we might call unimportant. In God's purpose the two are inseparable.

Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies in various churches of different denominations as well as Sunday School classes in reformatories and orphanages have found CeBeCers as teachers and helpers, and throughout the week, Bible Clubs for white children and colored children flourished with increased attendance. Groups of visitors opened up new neighborhoods for regular services for children and adults; and nearly every evening, young people's groups gathered for recreation and inspiration. The joy of the Lord was carried into the hospitals, both white and colored, and He who is the Great Physician walked to many a bedside. The State Fair was not without a witness and everyday of the week, the message was given through visual aids, tract distribution, and personal work. Many of the young men have the responsibility as pastors of churches in and around Columbia.

Through the responsibilities of the Lord's Work the students are developing effective leadership.

MUSIC

FIRST ROW—Pierce, Sykes, Otteson, Knight, Phillips, Osburn, Midyett, Watson, King, Duvall, Doverspike. SECOND ROW—Young, Sherrod, C., Taylor, A., Silar, Simmons, Edge, Smith, Woodbury, Knowlton, Miller, V., Most. THIRD ROW—Townsend, Newsom, A., Brown, Seigler, Oppen, Popp, Noell, Munn, Berry, Brownlee, Humphries, Barrs. FOURTH ROW—Legant, Anderson, Bennett, Beacham, Geo., Hamlin, Livingston, Sanders, Meier, Carroll, Shuford, Wilson, Parrott, Wheatley, Caffner, Stump. FIFTH ROW—Evertsburg, Hartman, Chenault, B., Camp, C., Carter, Stone, Mr. Ponzi Pennington, Director; Stiles, Wyckoff, V., Wyckoff, C., Miss Grace Tweton, Accompanist.

Evidences from all walks of life at C. B. C. show that our school would not be the same without music. What foundations would the deputations, the radio broadcast, the special programs, or even our own chapel and devotions have to build upon without the aid of music!

But there are many elements that make up this little word. From it come solos, duets, quartets, and a vast chorus of voices. Many hours of conscientious practice are required on the part of each of us, who do it as joyous service unto the Lord. "He hath put a new song in our mouths . . . and with our song will we praise Him."

"TRUTH FOR YOUTH"

Our radio program, "Truth for Youth" is an important part of the testimony of the Bible College. It is presented weekly over station WKIX from 9:30 P. M., to 10:00 P. M., Thursday night. Not only has the program proved a blessing and a means of service for those taking part, but it has opened a wonderful opportunity to reach the youth of Columbia with the truth in Christ Jesus. The time, graciously given the school by WKIX, is filled with gospel singing, special testimonies, and a brief and vital message—all especially directed to young people. The all-pervading purpose of the broadcast is to bring these young people to Him who is "The Way, the Truth, and the Life".
